

“SUI GENERIS SOCIETY”

A Solo Exhibition by

MAGALI KATRA

The Happy Crowd | 2024

Acrylic on Canvas | 38 x 38 inch

This main piece translates the artist's love for people, the joy of being part of a crowd represented by the colors.

Let's stay together | 2024

Acrylic on Canvas | 38 x 38 inch

Let's stay together is about a group of people calling a lonely silhouette, away of the crowd, to join. The squares represent each one own story that sometime convey into one.

Katra's silhouettes are gender neutral because the social subjects she treats speaks to everyone and anyone

Divided we fall | 2024

Acrylic on Canvas | 35 x 47 inch

“Divided we fall” is about a society that tries to live in harmony despite differences, a society that accepts difference and understands the other. If this unity gets to be divided, then one will fall in emptiness (represented by this yellow square that get bigger during the fall in the green square of emptiness)

Connecting People | 2024

Acrylic on Canvas | 47 x 75 inch

“Connecting People” is about two different group of people, evolving in different part of the word, who communicate in different languages, traditions, environments, can still find a common ground (represented by this red square).

Fraction of Life – Burgundy | 2024

Acrylic on Canvas | 31 x 39 inch

“Fraction of Life”: the next six pieces represent how each one of us holds a chapter of his life within him. This Chapter is represented by the colored squares, it could be a happy chapter or a sad one, a heavy chapter or a light one, it could be a big chapter or two smaller ones. The white represents the chapters that has not been written yet.
